Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1, 5, 6, 8-12 and 14-24, drawn to a method for producing fine metal oxide particles comprising combusting, in a gas phase, a gaseous organometallic compound in the presence of an oxidizing substance.

Group II, claim 2, drawn to a method for producing fine metal oxide particles comprising mixing gaseous organometallic compound with an oxidizing substance and subjecting the mixture to combustion.

Group III, claims 3, 7 and 13, drawn to a method for producing fine metal oxide particles comprising mixing an organometallic compound solution with an oxidizing substance, making the mixture into a gaseous state and subjecting the gaseous mixture to combustion.

Group IV, claims 4, 26 and 27, drawn to vaporizing an organometallic compound solution, mixing the resulting gaseous solution with an oxidizing substance and subjecting the mixture to combustion.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature linking the groups, which is the general process of combusting a gaseous organometallic compound in the presence of an oxidizing compound to form fine metal oxide particles, does not provide a contribution over the prior art since the special teaching feature is the process defined by claim 1, and that process is either obvious or anticipated by U.S. patent 4,842,832. Therefore no general inventive concept exists and restriction is appropriate.

Group I contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Phosphorescent metal oxides

Conductive metal oxides

Ferroelectric metal oxides

Metal oxides which are not phosphorescent, conductive or ferroelectric

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

If applicants elect Group I, then they must also elect one of the above species.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of an invention, and a species if Group I is elected, to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention and species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
